

BORGIO SANTULETTA

The visitor's notebook

If you visit Borgo Santuletta, spend a few days away from the routine, or even just a few hours, you discover a lost dimension, find your lost calm, fix your mood, heal the wounds of an exhausting life.

Here at the Borgo, time flows according to its own rhythms and thoughts are free to flow between a dip in the pool, a lunch next to the well and a walk in the park of the animals. This is how our stories were born: listening to the rhythm of nature and the visitor stories.

And just for visitors there is this notebook, a space to populate with ideas, inspirations, words that immortalize the moments here at the Borgo.

We have put our synapses into it, now it's your turn: write, draw, tell us what you experienced or felt during your stay.

You can give us yours thoughts and continue the story with us, or put the notebook in the suitcase, to take a Borgo Santuletta souvenir with you.

Welcome to the synopsis refuge

A special memory always remains imprinted after each trip. It can be a perfume, a flavor, an object or a glimpse that struck us and made us fall in love. When we find this again, after some time, our mind goes back to that place, because a bond indissoluble has been created, and a pleasant shiver runs through the spine, to excite the senses and the soul. It is this game of synapses that makes dreams possible, that transforms those flashes of memory into stories.

And here we are right in the refuge of the synapses, where a collection of memories and corners transports us in another dimension, unexplored but familiar. In Oltrepò a door opens to another world, just open it to feel that thrill.
